CiCeA Outstanding Achievement Award 2025 – Professor Beata Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz

On behalf of the Board and members of the Children's Identity and Citizenship European Association (CiCeA), it is our great pleasure to inform you that Professor Beata Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz, Head of the Department of Clinical, Developmental and Educational Psychology at the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, has been honored with the CiCeA Outstanding Achievement Award 2025.

The Outstanding Achievement Award recognizes exceptional scholarly contributions and long-standing commitment to advancing international research and collaboration in the fields of children's and young people's identity, citizenship, civic participation, and education.

Professor Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz has made significant contributions to the understanding of civic development, citizenship identity, and social and political engagement among children and young people. Her extensive academic achievements include numerous scientific publications, books, and international research projects conducted in collaboration with scholars from different countries. Her work has been particularly influential in promoting cross-cultural perspectives on youth citizenship, civic engagement, and education, including emerging forms of social participation in digital environments.

We also want to highlight Professor Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz's outstanding contribution to the international academic community. As President of CiCeA from 2019 to 2021, she demonstrated exceptional leadership and dedication to strengthening international research networks, fostering interdisciplinary collaboration, and promoting scholarly dialogue on citizenship and education. Her continued commitment to international academic cooperation has contributed to the visibility and development of research in this field.

The Outstanding Achievement Award recognizes both Professor Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz's individual academic accomplishments and her sustained contribution to the international scholarly community. It also reflects positively on the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, where she has pursued her academic and institutional activities for many years.

On behalf of the entire Association, we congratulate Professor Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz on this well-deserved distinction. We wish her continued success in her academic endeavors and look forward to her ongoing contributions to the CiCeA community and the advancement of research on citizenship and civic participation.

Yours sincerely,

Liliana Jacott Jiménez
